HE PAPYROGRAPH

S AN EXTRAORDINARY INVENTION FOR printing copies by the thousands from a single autograph writing or drawing. From one writing by this process a thousand permanent fac-similes impressions of circulars, price lists, specifications, examination papers, assessment notices, etc., may be printed in an ordinary copying press, upon any description of paper. Copies may be taken direct from the writing without any of the usual processes of inking, rolling, transferring or type-setting. A proof impression may be produced within five minutes after a manuscript has been completed and be afterwards multiplied at the rate of five hundred an hour, at an infinitesimal cost.

One Thousand Copies

ay be produced from a single sheet of Papyrograph Paper, and a single application of color, at expense of four cents. It possesses over printing the advantages of an Autograph Letter, besides admitting of illustrations without the expense of wood cuts. It allows autograph letters to pass through the mail as third class matter. It is invaluable to any business. It can be seen in operation at the office of the agent for Oregon.

Louisiana Auditorship.

NEW ORLEANS, June 7.—In the case of Johnson, Republican State Auditor, vs Jumel, who [illegible] on the office April 25th, Judge [illegible] of the U. S. District Court, in a long [illegible], dismissed the petition for an injunction restraining Jumel from acting as auditor. [illegible] petitioner has alleged he was declared elected, that the attempt to [illegible] him of the office was defeated by the returning board and effect given to every [illegible] he has secured the election, and [illegible] deprived of the office to which he [illegible] and declared elected, not by the [illegible] of votes not by any reason, but by [illegible]. The statute limits the jurisdiction [illegible] question arising out of the denial [illegible] to vote. Its scope extends from [illegible] to the final canvass. If the pre- [illegible] exclusion of the votes has been prevented or the result declared without discrimination or exclusion by the proper State authorities, then the statute closes the doorway [illegible] jurisdiction of his court. The de- [illegible] be accomplished by the machinery of election. An election free from exclusion, [illegible] alleges, has been accomplished and the result arrived at. Under the statutes [illegible] declared it gives no jurisdiction over a [illegible] merely to physically regain an office, [illegible] of which the court could take [illegible] is not presented. This loss of [illegible] as if he had been ejected by a government set up by a foreign invasion, claiming [illegible] by the right of conquest.

The Doctors in Council.

CHICAGO, June 7.—The Rocky Mountain Medical Association held its annual meeting last evening at the Palmer House. This association is composed of those members of the American Medical Association who crossed the Rocky Mountains in 1871 to attend the annual meeting in San Francisco. Dr. Toner of Washington presided. He delivered an interesting address, in which he gave an account of the journey across the mountains. The election of officers for the ensuing year was held and resulted in the election of Dr. N. S. Davis, President; Dr. John Morris, of Baltimore, Secretary. The association tabled a proposition to change the pharmacopœia and refused to discuss the matter. The next meeting is to be in Buffalo next June.

Gave Leg Bail.

NEW YORK, June 8.—An order was issued yesterday for the arrest of S. H. Baxter, who is [illegible] with Trenor W. Park and others [illegible] the Emma Mine affair. Park being in California, no effort was made to serve him, but when the sheriff went to the Windsor Hotel for Baxter the latter had evidently read the morning paper, which announced that he would be arrested, and departed for Vermont.

Sweeney's Payments.

[illegible] The terms of the payment of Sweeney's $400,000 are $150,000 down and the rest in 30 [illegible]. The World denounces the settlement of the suit against Sweeney. It says it will not do for the public prosecutor in these ring suits [illegible] himself up in mysterious reserve [illegible] foreign minister on the floor of the English House of Commons and assert that the public service will not permit him to answer questions. The great public will cannot be managed like a caucus. The people of the city of New York who are plaintiffs in suits against Sweeney have every reason to be disgusted with the settlement of that suit, the terms of which are kept from them, and may well be convinced, as they are fast coming to be convinced, that the ring suits have been [illegible] mere means to the ends of political combinations and political schemers.

All the journals regard the settlement of the Sweeney suits as a broad political farce.

Fire.

BOSTON, June 7.—A large five story building on the corner of Shawmut avenue and Pleasant street, owned by Jacob Bock and occupied by about twenty-five people, in eight [illegible], was burned this morning; loss, $10,000. The fire originated on the lower floor, and the building having no fire escape and but [illegible] stairs, the occupants escaped with much difficulty. Mrs. Eliza Carn jumped from the third story window and received fatal injuries. Mrs. Dessel jumped from the fourth story and was likewise fatally injured. Several were more or less burned in their efforts to escape.

South Carolina Legislature.

COLUMBIA, June 6.—The report of the conference committee appointed to adjust the differences between the two houses relative to the appropriation bill was adopted by the House and Senate to-day, thus putting an end to the financial deadlock.

A concurrent resolution was passed by both houses to-day declaring the seat of Judge R. B. Carpenter vacant, on the ground that the election in December 1875 was illegal, the office at that time not being vacant, and ordering an election to fill the vacancy to-morrow.

In the House a resolution agreeing to impeach Associate Justice J. J. Wright for drunkenness, was passed by a two-thirds vote, and a committee will be appointed to prepare articles of impeachment. In the meantime, Wright is suspended from exercising the duties of his office.

WASHINGTON CITY.

General Examining Board.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Secretary Schurz today by order created a board, consisting of Dr. Richard Joseph, disbursing clerk of the Interior Department; J. B. Farrell, chief of division in the second comptroller's office of the Treasury Department; and Amos Hadley, of the Interior Department, to examine into the methods now in force in finance and accounting divisions of the Indian bureau, especially as to the analysis of the money and property accounts of Indian agents, and whether the accounts of agents are rendered in accordance with law and regulations; whether any expenditures are made without proper authority, and whether the present system is such as to show at all times the condition of money and property affairs of each agency. The last quarterly reports of agents are to be carefully scrutinized for the purposes above mentioned, and particular examination will be made as to the number and compensation of employes at each agency, and whether they are given or allowed to purchase subsistence or clothing in violation of law. The board are also instructed to examine as to the character and total money value of special purchases for any agency during the present fiscal year, and whether such purchases have been properly accounted for. The board are not to be limited by these specific instructions but are to make such further investigation as may be deemed proper for the best interests of the service.

Third Assistant Postmaster General.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The President to-day appointed A. D. Hazel, of Pennsylvania, Third Assistant Postmaster General, vice E. W. Barber resigned, to take effect June 30th.

Revenue Matters.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The aggregate internal revenue receipts for the fiscal year to date have exceeded the total receipts for the same period last year. The returns are already over a $111,000,000. The impression at the department is that full receipts for the year will fall little if any below the estimate of $120,000,000.

Commissions Signed.

The President to-day signed the commissions of Jas. Gilfillan to be U. S. treasurer, A. U. Wyman to be assistant treasurer; appointments to take effect on the first proximo.

An Official Investigation Asked.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Certain charges affecting the official integrity of Galpin, chief clerk of the Indian office, having been filed recently, that officer has requested an immediate and thorough investigation, and Secretary Schurz has to-day appointed a board of inquiry to make a full and immediate inquiry.

Fixing Up the Foreign Missions.

CHICAGO, June 7.—The Tribune's special from Washington says: It is evident that the President intends to offer Massachusetts one first-class mission, and Banks will probably have the refusal of it. He has been summoned here on that business. Whether it will be Russia is not known. James Russell Lowell, George Wm. Curtis and Wayne McVeigh have declined leading commissions.

Sherman's Silence.

CHICAGO, June 7.—A special says many leading bankers are writing to Washington to induce Secretary Sherman to come out and clearly define his policy for the sake of the country, but the Secretary has not decided to do so yet.

Why Barber Resigned.

NEW YORK, June 7.—The World's Washington special says Barber resigned because of political reasons. He is a straightout Republican and does not indorse the new policy in regard to civil service, which he pronounces a humbug.

Incendiaries at Work.

NEW YORK, June 7.—The World's Washington special says the repeated attempts recently made to burn the Navy Department buildings were for the purpose of destroying certain valuable documents and papers which furnished evidence of extraordinary transactions. It is intimated that Secretary Low, at the head of the department, will soon distinguish himself by furnishing an expose of the conspiracy. The evidence is near at hand.

Turkey's Debt.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Eugene Schuyler, Consul General at Constantinople, writes the State Department that the public debt of Turkey amounts to $927,000,000, the annual interest on which is $65,000,000, more than half the total revenue of the Empire. The last annual budget, published March, 1876, showed a deficit of $21,000,000. Unless great reforms are speedily introduced and care given to the development of natural resources, not even the present amount of taxes can long be raised. There will be an additional deficit each year, and as Turkey henceforth will be precluded from borrowing money outside, the financial ruin of the country seems inevitable.

The Spanish Insult.

Secretary Evarts, alluding to the alleged outrage of the whaler Ellen Reiph by Spanish cruisers, said that while he was sensible of the friendly relations between Spain and the United States, he did not intend to allow an outrage upon our flag, and while Spain would be held responsible for any insult to the United States, he would see that this government fulfilled all its obligations to Spain.

KEY WEST, June 6.—Col. Wicker, collector of customs, pursuant to instructions of the Secretary of the Treasury, dispatched the revenue steamer Crawford to night in search of the whaling schooner Ellen Riseph, which sailed Monday night, to obtain a sworn statement of the master as to his detention by Spanish cruisers, his confinement, and other atrocities committed.

Freedman's Bank Property.

The Freedman's Bank property was offered for sale to-day. The highest bid was $110,000. The property was then offered for sale in parts, but there was no bid at all for the bank property and for the other only $100,000 was offered. The value of the entire property is about $260,000.

The French Mission.

The rumor that Gen. Banks had been invited to accept the French mission is without foundation.

The Boston Telegram says: That Banks has been invited to confer with the President on the subject of the French mission is untrue, because Gov. Noyes already has papers for that mission in his pocket and will leave for Europe in July.

Confederate Graves.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The Southern Memorial Association to-day decorated the graves of Confederate soldiers at Arlington cemetery.

Ohio has not Got her Share.

CHICAGO, June 7.—The Tribune's Washington special says the belief that Ohio has received an undue number of official favors is discovered to be erroneous upon examination of lists of appointees. In fact the proportion is largely against Ohio.

Louisiana Appointments.

A delegation of intelligent representatives of Louisiana colored Republicans presented the President to-day the names of three of their race whom they desired to have good government positions at New Orleans. Their wishes will probably be respected. It is expected that a prominent Union soldier will be given a prominent place in New Orleans, and that Wharton will replace Pitkin as marshal, who will be suspended.

Rotterdam Consulship.

There is an animated contest for the Rotterdam consulship. Among the applicants are Haas and Guiten of Chicago, and Williman of New York.

Wharton's Denial.

Wharton, of New Orleans, denies Butler's assertions regarding him, and declares he stood by Packard to the last, and if Butler keeps on he will be proven a falsifier.

Fractional Currency.

Treasurer Sherman has estimated that $11,000,000 of fractional currency will never be presented for redemption. The nominal amount now outstanding is $21,000,000. It is claimed that a fair interpretation of the law limiting the volume of silver coin and fractional currency to $30,000,000 would warrant replacing these $11,000,000 by silver, as well as to redeem that presented in silver. Much fractional currency is reported circulating in country places, especially in the South.

Supplies for the Shoshones.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The delinquent contractor for the transportation of supplies for the Shoshone Indians whose suffering condition was reported by Gen. Sheridan to Gen. Sherman, has been found, and an order secured by the Indian Bureau for the delivery of the goods detained at Bryan Station, and the goods will be at once delivered to trains waiting and sent immediately to the Shoshones, thus relieving any anxiety relative to disturbances in that territory.

McVeigh to Butler.

Wayne McVeigh furnishes the press a reply to the last letter of Gen. Butler. The following are the last few lines: "Those who know me will not believe anything you say against me, and those who know you of course will not believe anything you say against anybody."

Land Office Consolidations.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—On recommendation of Commissioner Williamson, the land office at Beaver, Utah, will be discontinued and the district consolidated with that of Salt Lake. Orders for a number of similar consolidations will be issued in the course of a few days.

Small Greenbacks.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—An erroneous impression exists that Sherman has given orders stopping the issue of $1 and $2 bills. No such orders are given, though requests for these notes at the treasury by citizens are not complied with.

Key's Errand South.

The World's Washington special says Key's mission South was a semi-political one under guise of official business. A revival of the Whig party was demonstrated to be hopeless.

Bust of the President.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The President this morning received a large bust of himself in terra cotta, from the Louisiana Constitutional Union Association. This present was in appreciation of his Southern policy. The bust will be placed in the library of the executive mansion.

Reported Resignation.

It is asserted to-day that previous to his departure last night Third Assistant Postmaster General Thurber placed his resignation in the hands of the Postmaster General.

THE TURF.

Last race for all ages, mile heats; Elemi won, Verdigris 2d, time, 1:56½, 1 55½.

CANADA.

Fire.

QUEBEC, June 6.—Great damage is reported by fires in the Saguenay district. About thirty houses, with barns, etc., were destroyed in St. Louis and St. Jerome parishes.

OREGON.

St. Paul's academy at Salem has closed for summer vacation.

Henry Failing, Esq., has been elected Trustee of Pacific University in place of Prof. Thos. Condon, resigned.

Arrangements are making for a general celebration of the Fourth at Hillsboro, which will be participated in by citizens from all parts of Washington county.

A merchant flour mill is to be built at Salem on the river bank where the north part of Mill creek empties into the Willamette. Work will begin immediately.

There will be a grove meeting held by the spiritualists on their grounds at New Era, Clackamas county, Oregon, commencing June 22, 1877, and extending over Sunday.

Is it true that the deaths by drowning this season among the fishermen on the lower river have averaged four or five a week? A letter to the Salem Mercury asserts this.

The common council of Astoria has ordered the purchase of a hose carriage and 500 feet of hose. The Astorian urges the purchase of one or more steam fire engines.

The fourth annual meeting of the Medical Society of the State of Oregon, will be held in the office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, at Salem, on Monday and Tuesday next.

Salem Record: We have been on several crowded trains of late, and can bear witness that the coming immigration seems to be composed of earnest and intelligent people who will make good citizens.

The Astorian: John Adair, Jr., and J. W. Cook are up the river soliciting subscriptions from the several canneries, in the interest of the society, for the propagation of salmon. We are informed they are meeting with very good success.

HARDLY A FAIR COMPENSATION.—Some recent reported utterances of President Hayes, to the effect that although Ohio might be lost to the Republicans this fall, he thought it quite likely that his Southern policy would win two or three States in the South, are not very well received by the Sandusky (Ohio) Register. It says: "We have a profound conviction that it would have been better for the Republican party had Tilden been counted in as President. The Republican party is now divided. Had Tilden been counted in it would have been a unit. If it is best for the party that it be defeated next fall, why not best that it was defeated last fall, always and excepting that the Federal officers have a long pull." Further it asks: "We should like to know what can be gained by the loss of Ohio and the gain of North Carolina and Tennessee? Such fruits of his Southern policy are not very comforting to the Ohio Republicans, to whom Hayes is indebted for his election."

LATEST WAR NEWS.

Operations in Montenegro.

LONDON, June 7.—A Vienna correspondent of the Times thus explains the operations around Montenegro: As the success of Suliman Pasha is reported from Ragusa as well as Constantinople the news may be assumed to be true that he has taken possession of Kustach Kustasz at the entrance of Duga pass. It seems equally certain that the Turks on the Southern frontier, who advanced in the direction of Spuz have been driven back before Montenegro was aware that the attack on the Abani side was but a feint, and that he took the bulk of his forces thence with a view of making an effort to capture Nicsic before Suliman could come to the rescue. Much will depend on whether Suliman is able to force the Duga pass and relieve Nicsic before it falls into the hands of the Montenegrins.

The Times' correspondent at Ostrok, who draws his information from the reports sent to the Prince of Montenegro, telegraphs under date of June 4th as follows: The Turks today attacked the position of Gen. Metrovischs on the Martine za. They fell in o a trap and were completely repulsed, leaving over 1,000 dead. Of the Montenegrins there were about 50 killed. The number of wounded is not known. The Osrickrish blockhouse commanding the entrance to the plain of Nicisces, was evacuated this afternoon, most of the garrison escaping to Nicisces.

RAGUSA, June 7.—Consuls here have information that the Turks have been defeated in an engagement on the southern frontier.

Fighting continues in the vicinity of Duga Pass.

Ali Saib's Fight.

LONDON, June 6.—Perplexing contradictions relative to Ali Saib's operations on the southern frontier of Montenegro continue to be received.

VIENNA, June 6.—Political Correspondence publishes a special from Cattaros, stating that Ali Saib was defeated at Maljaland, and lost 7,000 men.

A Ragusa telegram supports this. Ali Saib, on the other hand, has telegraphed to Constantinople a most circumstantial account of his successes, according to which, he has occupied the heights commanding Danilograd.

A Small Force.

LONDON, June 6.—Vienna correspondence states that Despotivitch's commands in Bosnia numbers 3,800 men and holds only about two square miles of mountain district bordering on Dalmatia. It obtains supplies from Dalmatian sympathizers.

Struck Torpedoes.

VIENNA, June 6.—The Deutsch Zeitung's Pera special says that an Italian corvette with two hundred men aboard has come to grief in the Dardanelles by striking torpedoes. The telegram gives no further particulars

A Correction.

ROME, June 7.—A statement published in the Vienna Deutch Zeitung yesterday, that an Italian corvette had been sunk in the Dardanelles, by striking a torpedo, is untrue.

The Plague Abating.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 6.—Deaths by plague at Bagdad have decreased 24 weekly.

The Commander in Asia.

LONDON, June 7.—A Vienna dispatch says rail communication throughout Roumania has been reopened. Grand Duke Michaels, commander-in-chief of the army of Caucasus, left Tiflis Tuesday for Alexandrof.

Rumored Turkish Offer of Peace.

The Times' correspondent at Bucharest telegraphs: A rumor is current here to-day that Turkey has offered to pay five milliards as war indemnity and allow Russians to retain the places they have captured in Asia. I merely mention this as a flying report.

Deserting Poles Shot.

NEW YORK, June 6.—The Times' Bucharest special says: Among a large number of Circassian prisoners passing through Jassy recently, on the way to Siberia, 14 Poles who had deserted from the Russian army were discovered and summarily shot.

Austrian Mobilization.

NEW YORK, 7.—The Times' special from Vienna says that Austria has commenced in earnest the mobilization of her army. She is no doubt a party to the secret treaty between Germany and Russia.

A Russian Raid.

PARIS, June 6.—A dispatch from Constantinople to Journal des Debates asserts that 1,000 Abchasians have been surprised and cut to pieces by the Russians.

Bucharest in a State of Siege.

Bucharest is about to be proclaimed in a state of siege.

The Russian police, owing to the reputation of Roumania as a gathering place for Poles and other turbulent characters deemed it necessary to take even more than usually severe precautions for the safety of the Czar. As well as sending those of the secret police they demanded unlimited right of arresting suspicious individuals. The Roumanian government refused to grant this, because it was a direct violation both of Russo Roumanian convention and the convention of the country. Grand Duke Nicholas manifested his displeasure at the refusal by taking no notice of the prime minister when they went to meet him on the occasion of his last visit to Bucharest. The Roumanian government, though it has yet not made a sign of yielding, will probably compromise by consenting to proclaim a state of siege which would permit the exceptionable measures desired by the Russians.

The Russians are complaining of ill will and dillatoriness of the Roumanian authorities.

The Greek Armaments.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 7.—It is stated that the Porte is about to send a note to Athens relative to the Greek armaments.

War Ships at Pesth.

PESTH, June 7.—The Russian frigate Suetland, from New York, and the Puydapahoesky, from the Mediterranean, have arrived here.

Suez to be Free.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 7.—The Porte has taken measures to avoid a conflict in the Suez canal. Navigation on the canal will be free to all vessels except Russian.

The Czar's Reception.

LONDON, June 7.—The arrival of the Czar at Ploiesti has been made the occasion of one of the grandest fetes on record. The scene at the railroad almost baffles description.

PLOIESTI, June 7.—Prince Charles of Roumania will arrive to-day.

Anglo-Russian Diplomacy.

CHICAGO, June 6.—The Inter Ocean's London special says: Count Schouvaloff's mission here as the bearer of a note from Prince Gortschakoff is not so pacific as the English press try to make it appear. Russia wants to avoid a conflict with England, but she will at all hazards uphold the dignity of the empire. Count Schouvaloff is instructed to assure Derby of the intention of Russia to carry out all her promises, but to protest against the tone of the note in which the position of England regarding the Suez Canal is defined. This note intimates in decided terms that interference with the canal would be looked upon in England as threatening the safety of her India interest and a severe blow to the commerce of the various nations of the world. It was also declared that England would most positively object to making the Suez Canal the theater of any warlike operations whatever. Count Schouvaloff is instructed to make the position of England on this matter the subject of a special interview. Russia wants the same rights during the war that England has enjoyed by the belligerents during the Franco-Prussian troubles. If Great Britain still objects to the equitable plan of neutralization, the Czar will appeal to the powers. There is trouble ahead.

Russia's Answer to Derby's Note.

LONDON, June 5.—The Times' special from Vienna announces that representatives of the guaranteeing powers in St. Petersburg have been informed that Count Schouvaloff is the bearer of Russia's answer to Derby's note, and that it is hoped the contents of that answer will be deemed satisfactory by the British government.

The Times' correspondent adds: None of the other governments have answered the last Russian circular. There was no occasion for Russia to return to the subject; still the Russian government has never failed to repeat that nothing was further from its intention than to claim the exclusive right of settling the question, but that having achieved its task of reducing the Turks to obedience, it meant to act in concert with the other powers in bringing about a lasting settlement. The complete understanding between Russia and Austria which is reported by some, can only be said to exist within proper limits; namely, that Russia has undoubtedly been made aware that certain contingencies would be deemed contrary to the interests of Austria, and she has, and doubtless will endeavor to keep clear of these, but this is a very different thing from an agreement as to the future solution of the Eastern question, in which Austria, more perhaps than any other power, is concerned to uphold the consent of the powers.

Division in British Councils.

NEW YORK, June 7.—The Times' London special says: It is reported that there is serious division in the British cabinet. Salisbury is understood to be strongly opposed to the undertaking of any warlike action. Notwithstanding that the mobilization of various army corps is still in progress. It is quite evident England is not so ready for offensive operations as her war secretary professes. The Queen's continued absence is still giving rise to great dissatisfaction among all classes. No doubt Earl Grey has remonstrated with her on the impolicy of her course.

The government has determined that it will not at present withdraw the garrisons from the west coast of Africa.

I had an interview to-day with Midhat Pasha, and he tells me he is expecting hourly to be recalled.

Affairs in Asia Minor.

LONDON June 7.—The following is a Turkish account of the position of affairs in Asia Minor: On the morning of the 6th of June Mukhtar Pasha's headquarters, with nine battalions, were at Koprekos. The Turkish right, consisting of 20 battalions, was at Delibaba. The Turkish left wing, 16 battalions, was at Gurdji, and the baggage about six hours' march from Erzeroum. The same account only assigns four batteries of artillery to these 45 battalions, which seems incredible, though it has been repeatedly stated from various sources that the Turks in Asia Minor were almost destitute of artillery. This report places the main body of the Russian right wing at Olti, with the advanced guard at Nariwan, and the Russian center at Soghanli Dagh. The Russian left has suspended its forward movement. A Russian detached column is approaching Van and has reached the bridge of Bendimahon, 20 miles from Van.

Turkish Finances.

In the Turkish Chamber of Deputies yesterday the Prime Minister demanded a credit of five million Turkish pounds. The Minister states that negotiations for a foreign loan had not had any result. The Chamber appointed a committee to examine the Minister's demand. It is proposed to levy an internal loan.

Turkish Press Censor.

The Turkish ambassador at Paris telegraphed to Constantinople and received the following from Safart Pasha: "It is not true that the situation of our army is precarious, nor that Kars is invested, nor that Moussa Pasha's cavalry was destroyed." Yet the Turkish censor permitted these stories to be telegraphed to the London papers.

The Turkish Blockade a Failure.

An Odessa correspondent writes that there is no longer fear there of the Turkish fleet. Confidence has been completely restored. Indeed, the Russian government now refuses to acknowledge the blockade and proposes to resume running steamers between Odessa and Kherson and Odessa and Nicolaief.

Russia's Object made Known.

LONDON, June 7.—A semi-official telegram from St. Petersburg states that the Russian ambassadors to London, Berlin and Vienna on their return to their posts will be able to give assurances that Russia does not aim at political transformation of the map of the east. Nothing is further removed from her intentions than to cause fresh European complications. Russia will oppose the entry of revolutionary insurrections into the war, and also endeavor as in the case of Servia to prevent a participation of vassal and neighboring States.

The Czar in Roumania.

PLOIESTI June 7.—The Czar and Prince Charles of Roumania having had conference, the Czar will visit Prince Charles at Bucharest Saturday. Great preparations are being made for his reception.

Montenegrins Defeated.

LONDON, June 7.—A telegram from Sera says intelligence has been received here from a special source that the Montenegrins have been defeated in Duga pass with heavy loss.

Gortschakoff's Message.

LONDON, June 8.—A Paris correspondent states that the communication which Count Schouvaloff brings to London is not a note in a diplomatic sense, but a letter from Prince Gortschakoff in reply to a letter of Lord Derby which Count Schouvaloff took with him to St Petersburg. In his letter, Lord Derby drew the attention of Russia to various points where English interests would be affected if Russian action extended so far. They were mentioned in Mr. Crosse's speech in Parliament, and are the Suez canal and Egypt, Constantinople, the Dardanelles and the Persian Gulf. The Prince's letter successively takes up these points and explains that Russia does not intend to interfere with any one of them. Prince Gortschakoff acknowledges the great international and commercial importance of the Suez canal, and gives the most positive assurances that Russia does not intend, in any way, to touch it. Russia intimates that she thinks herself entitled, as a matter of right, to carry the war to Egypt, but explains that any action in that direction was never even taken into consideration. This is more the case as regards the Persian Gulf. Russia thinks such an important maritime passage as the Dardanelles must be regulated by international agreement, and not by one power alone. She disclaims any intention of acquiring Constantinople, though at the same time she could not consent to its possession by any other Christian power. The communication is silent as regards any temporary occupation of Constantinople which may become necessary and ensue in course of Russian military achievements. The letter goes on to say that Russia has remained true to her programme in aiming solely at improving the condition of Christians in Turkey, which can only be done by coercion of the Porte. As soon as Russia has achieved this she will fall back on the resolutions of the Constantinople conference and contend for such guarantees as will ensure the efficiency of the reforms, asking the powers to take up the thread where it was broken by dissolution of the conference.

Turkish Minister at Berlin.

BERLIN June 7.—The arrival of Sabdoullah Bey, the new Turkish ambassador to Berlin, who leaves Constantinople to-morrow, is looked forward to as an event of importance, for it is believed the German government will with the concurrence of England advise Turkey to conclude a peace as soon as possible, Russia having already informed the cabinets at London, Vienna and Berlin that she would agree to conclude a peace on the basis of the protocol; accepting a concession of territory in Asia Minor instead of indemnity.

A Ghost of Himself.

A special from Ibrail says Prince Gortschakoff looks very ill, and is a mere ghost of himself. It is thought he will not live long.

General War Notes.

LONDON, June 7.—Extensive preparations are being made at Galatz, and large quantities of cable chains have accumulated at that point. The places on the Danube whither this material will be moved are not known.

Bands of Russian soldiers frequently cross the river at Galatz and make their way as far as the hills opposite the city. The object of the reconnoissance is not so much to ascertain the position of the Turkish troops, which is already known, as to watch the progress of the water on the flats.

Various specials to the Daily Telegraph report increased activity on both sides of the Danube.

A Bucharest correspondent says there is a report that the Turks intend to attempt some offensive movements.

All dispatches show that the weather has greatly improved in both Asiatic and European seats of war.

The Telegraph's correspondent at Erzeroum, says archives of that city have been sent to Erzingan.

There is a rumor that Cossacks have been near Ispir, in the valley of the Tchuruk.

Communication with Trebizond will probably be interfered with.

Sighanul mountain is now practicable for troops on all sides.

LONDON, June 7.—A Pesth dispatch says: Telegrams received here announce that the commandant of Agram has published an order forbidding any member of the reserve to leave his place of residence.

BELGRADE, June 7.—It is said that the Servian General Protich, who has just returned from a mission to Vienna, has given assurances there that Servia will observe the strictest neutrality, in the hope that Austria and Russia will, when peace is concluded, protect Servian interests.

Horrible Turkish outrages are reported, particularly from Navilazar, in old Servia. The Servians are much excited.

LONDON, June 8.—A special from Schumla says: It is generally believed at Turkish headquarters that the Russian main force will attempt within the next few days to cross the Danube near Nikopolis.

A correspondent at Vienna says from the Herzegovina side the news is that Suliman Pasha, after taking Krelor, sent Ali Pasha to relieve and provision Piva before he (Suliman) attempted to force Duga Pass.

LATER—A telegram states that Piva has been revictualed.

A special from Ostroll shows that the fighting at Kristte was very sanguinary. Montenegrin losses reported are 600 killed and wounded on Monday night, and 1,200 Turks killed. Fifty officers' sabres are reported to have been brought in.

A Widdin dispatch of Thursday says Russians continue concentration of pontoon trains. A great force has arrived and crossing the river, it is believed, will be attempted immediately.

A Vienna dispatch says: It is stated that the houses of 150 Jewish families were pillaged by a mob at Dowbania, in Roumania, on Sunday. Eleven were killed, 24 wounded and 90,000 ducats stolen.

The news is confirmed that Circassians in Thessaly pillaged the Monastry of Ragine and killed the monks.

BUCHAREST, June 7.—Out of 33 districts into which Roumania is divided, 23 have been virtually placed under martial law. This was done because capital punishment is not recognized by the civil law, and frequent discovery of spies rendered the measure necessary.

The Moniteur announces that a circular will be sent to members of universities calling on them, to abstain from political discussions.

Milder Counsel Prevails.

The presidents of three sections of the Left held an important meeting to-day. Decisions arrived at show remarkable moderation. It was decided that Gambetta, at the re-opening of the Chamber, should move an interpellation on the part of the left, but that, contrary to the opinion of Gambetta himself and M. Thiers, he should refrain from arraigning the action of President MacMahon, whose irresponsibility should be fully admitted. It was also decided that the address in reply to MacMahon's message should be moderate, but decided. If the overtures were made to the majority with a view to ministerial changes, they should not be rejected without consideration, although it would be necessary to insist upon a retirement of M. Fourton. It was finally decided that the question of sanctioning the budget should be left to the budget committee. A majority of the meeting appeared to be of the opinion that nothing should be done to render a dissolution inevitable. It was admitted that M. Fourton's order relative to hawking licenses rendered many circumspect Republican newspapers more lukewarm in their utterances, and that to give the Republican canvassing the significance of hostility to MacMahon would lose a number of votes.

The Tichborne Case Revived—The Man who Found the Heir.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.—The Call this morning publishes a column article raking up the Tichborne case again, basing it on an advertisement recently published, asking for information of the captain, officers or crew of the schooner Osprey, which craft, it will be remembered, was said to have picked up Orton Tichborne, the claimant, in the South Atlantic, and taken him to Melbourne, Astralia. After reviewing at considerable length the details of the case so far as they relate to the Osprey, the article, in conclusion, states that Mitchell Owens, captain of the Osprey, has been found and has made his appearance in answer to the advertisement; also that the log book of the Osprey is in possession of parties in the city who, knowing its value, purchased it from the captain. Inquiry of G. H. Gray, former surveyor of this port but now of the law firm of Gray & Haven tends to throw some doubt on the story. According to his statements some months ago on being requested by the attorneys for the Tichborne claimant's relief fund to look up the matter, he placed the job of working it up in the hands of one F. L. Gordon. In the course of time Gordon reported that he had found the captain of the Osprey in person, Mitchell Owens, and that the log book was in his possession. Mr. Gray was then very much occupied with his own business and without seeking an interview with the captain, and having full confidence in his agent Gordon, who is understood to have associated with himself some other person unknown, and wrote to Tichborne's attorney, stating what had been learned. In reply he received a letter urging further prosecution of the inquiry, and enclosing a check for a small amount. On showing this to Gordon, the latter expressed contempt at the amount of the check, and since then has apparently abandoned the enterprise. Mr. Gray, under the circumstances, feels uncertain how much dependence he can place on Gordon's representations. He is still engaged in the effort to effect a communication with the somewhat mythical Captain Owens and his logbook, but as yet without success, and it seems quite probable there may be a job in the business for the purpose of extorting money.

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 8, 1877.

HOW IT IS DONE.

It seems there are those who are unable to see how the treaty with Hawaii has resulted in raising the price of sugars in our markets, or how it can operate solely in the interest and for the benefit of the refiners of San Francisco. Why, it is demanded, if the monopoly has advanced prices, do not other importers and merchants obtain supply from elsewhere? The answer is easy. A simple statement of a few facts will make the matter plain.

The refiners, commanding very large capital, have obtained control of the entire sugar product of the Hawaiian Islands. The planters are simply their agents. Nobody can obtain sugars for shipment except on terms made by the sugar monopoly of San Francisco, which controls the mills and plantations. Competition, therefore, in this trade cannot exist. The "operators" ship the sugars at such times and in such quantities as may give them best opportunity to hold the market in their own hands. Now the supply from this source, though large, is not large enough for the consumption of the whole Pacific coast. A certain quantity must be imported from other countries, or supplied from Eastern markets. But this monopoly, by reason of obtaining such a vast quantity from Hawaii free of duty, is able to make prices for the balance that comes from other places. Any importer who doesn't come to terms at once, is undersold for the time and quickly ruined. No one can venture to compete with so powerful an adversary. Prices are advanced or reduced nearly every week in the most arbitrary fashion. These fluctuations are simply signs that the monopoly is crushing somebody who has had the hardihood to attempt competition with it. All losses sustained by the monopoly in these transactions are quickly made good out of the enormous profits of the immense trade they control; for sugar is an article of universal consumption, the demand for it is uniform and steady, and it will sell freely at the advanced price when it cannot be had at the lower rate. In this way the monopoly that imports the enormous product of the Islands free of duty also virtually has control of all sugars imported from elsewhere. It regulates the market to suit its views of its own interest.

We have seen how the petroleum market has fallen under control of a single management, and how prices are made to fluctuate to meet its caprices and minister to its greeds. The Hawaiian treaty gives opportunity for similar manipulation of the sugar market of the Pacific coast. Given, the advantage derived from the importaion by a single company of so great a quantity of sugar free of duty, and the remainder of the work is simple and easy. What follows is a matter of course. The government loses the revenue, consumers pay more for sugars, competition for the market is out of the question, and the monopoly has full sway. The treaty is a great mistake. Besides its injurious consequences from a general point of view, it has destroyed the direct trade of Oregon with the Islands, because our merchants can no longer get a keg of sugar there except on such terms as are agreeable to the refiners of San Francisco. If they should attempt importation from other places, they would be undersold until driven from the market or brought to the terms of the monopoly. View it how we will, the treaty is a real grievance. It is a good thing for the parties who were so anxious to have it enacted, but it bears hard on the masses of our people and on an important branch of trade. It creates special privileges at the expense of the public interests, and is the reverse of reciprocity in everything but in name. Sugars from all sources should be let in free of duty, or this treaty should be terminated as speedily as possible.

A VERY IMPORTANT EXHIBITION.

Heretofore we have had occasion to make mention of the efforts that were making through the Land Department of the Oregon and California Railroad Company to disseminate information concerning Oregon, and to attract population to our State. A new and important effort is now to be made by the same company in a field hitherto unattempted. It is the intention to make an exhibit of Oregon's products at the Mechanics' Institute Fair at San Francisco, beginning on the first of August. As this is an important and expensive undertaking, it ought to receive all the support and assistance the people of Oregon can give it. Articles are therefore solicited for the exhibition. Products of every description are wanted. Specimens of grains, grasses, vegetables, fruit, timber, wool and articles manufactured from it, are particularly desired. Cereals should be furnished in the sheaf in order to show the nature of their growth in our soils. As good an exhibit can easily be made at San Francisco in the line of agricultural products as we have at our annual State Fair. Articles delivered at any railroad station will be received and forwarded without charge to those who furnish them. An agent will be in attendance at San Francisco, and will give his whole attention to Oregon's interests. It is a great opportunity to bring the advantages offered by our State to the notice of Californians who have heretofore entertained a most unintelligent prejudice toward Oregon. This can be made a most useful and creditable exhibition. It is just what is needed to silence misrepresentation of us in that quarter where it has always been loudest. Therefore let our people second the efforts of the company who have undertaken this enterprise. The assistance requested can be furnished without cost to the producers of the State. Just bring along anything that is suitable for exhibition, and leave it at any railway station. Oregon ought to show that her products are unequaled. Let them be placed beside those of California, and the comparison will be enough. Let no citizen who can aid this enterprise by furnishing creditable specimens for exhibition fail to do it. The time was never so favorable as now.

Republican defeat may be looked for in California. Senator Sargent is in the field for re-election. The fight against him is intensely bitter and uncompromising. Like many other men in similar position he thinks he must be "vindicated." Therefore he will not withdraw and relieve his party of the burden of a fight which it is forced to sustain so long as he is conspicuous in leadership. In several States Senators have been lost to the Republicans by this same course, and more no doubt will follow. The opposition to Sargent in California has several heads and branches. The most unjustifiable of any is the kind of fight the Chronicle is making upon him; for, although it can be asserted with truth that Sargent has done his full share toward demoralizing the civil service by claiming the "patronage" of his State as his personal property, yet there is no reason so far as known why he should be charged with participation in Pinney's rascalities.

ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT.

It is nearly thirty years since the effort began to establish a school at Forest Grove. Its founder and most generous patron was Rev. Harvey Clark, who gave all the work of his later years to the effort, with liberal endowments of land and a large share of his other means. More than all, he bequeathed to those who were to take up the work a courage which has never wavered and a faith which has never been shaken. Prior to 1851 a successful academy had been carried on. In that year Prof. S. H. Marsh, of Vermont, then a young man, arrived, and a higher scope and purpose were given to the work. The institution was organized and became known as Pacific University, with Dr. Marsh as President. With what faith and zeal he has labored for it, and how tenaciously he has clung to the idea of establishing an institution which should embody the higher purposes of educational work, is well known to all who have been brought in contact with him. For twenty-six years he has devoted himself with singleness of purpose to this labor. To him the institution is mainly indebted for its endowment other than its landed resources before spoken of. And to him more than to any other living person is due the conception of the true plan of the college and the faith which has sustained it through long and often trying periods. Dr. Marsh for a year past has been in feeble health, but hopes are entertained that he will soon be restored. For many years he has had the assistance of Prof. Lyman, and for a shorter period that of his brother, Prof. Joseph Marsh, and several others. Another professor will arrive from the East to take charge of one of the departments at the beginning of the next school year, in September.

Commencement exercises this week were of more than usual interest. On Tuesday evening members of the Junior Class delivered orations and read essays. All present were highly pleased with the thoroughness of discipline and maturity of thought evinced in the several productions. Good taste, the sure test of sound culture, was apparent throughout. Miss Laura Hoxter took "Reformation" for her subject, and treated it in a thoughtful way, free from all labored effort for mere ostentation. Miss Ella Scott had "A Plea for the Times," which was dealt with in a way that showed, as the essay before mentioned also did, that the relation of political subjects to social and intellectual movements is not unobserved by the young ladies of the land. Messrs. Milton Smith and D. C. Latourette delivered good orations relating to scientific subjects, which showed wide reading and judicious use of it. A singularly thoughtful essay was that by Mr. Horace Lyman on "Prose and Poetry." His analysis of the elements of the two forms of writing was subtle and thorough beyond much that is delivered in professed treatises on the subject. With this discourse every one present was surprised, and at the close general approbation was expressed of the manner in which the subject was treated.

On Wednesday the commencement exercises proper took place. The graduating class consisted of Miss Tabitha Clark, and Messrs. W. K. Curtis and Chas. H. Shaff. Miss Clark's essay on "Recompense" was creditable to her. Mr. Curtis took "Agriculture" for his theme, and in discussing it departed widely from the trite generalities and hackneyed platitudes so commonly presented by those who undertake to praise the farmer's mode of life. Mr. Shaff's oration was on "Political Freedom." In its way it was as discriminating and thorough as the discourse by Mr. Lyman on Prose and Poetry. It was entirely free from common-place ideas, and in its analysis of the true functions of government was characterized by sagacity and penetration. One of its leading ideas deserves especial mention. The notion that we should look to legislation for the promotion of public prosperity was rejected as it ought to be. Too many are apt to look to the legislature for a remedy for depression of commerce and neglect of private industry. Often this is spoken of as the only resource. It is an excellent thing on any proper occasion to hear this fatuous and too prevalent notion properly denounced and exposed. It is gratifying to see a young man start with the right idea on this subject.

At the conclusion of Mr. Shaff's address the degrees were conferred on the members of the graduating class. President Marsh also announced that by a vote of the Trustees the degree of Doctor of Laws had been conferred on Judge M. P. Deady. The next event in order was Judge Deady's address before the Alumni Association. The apology with which he introduced it was not necessary; for though it was not a new address prepared for this occasion, no discourse could have been more appropriate. The topic was "Words;" but this as a title gives no adequate idea of his subject. The perversion and current misuse of words and phrases, whereby shams are practised and falsehood is propagated in a multitude of forms, were illustrated with excellent learning and great wealth of original observation.

In the evening the annual meeting of the Alumni Association was held and the usual business transacted. A plan for a more general meeting next year, with wider range of exercises, was adopted. Later, there was a general reunion for social intercourse, to which all were invited. A very agreeable evening was passed. This reunion was to have been held at the house of President Marsh, as usual; but the state of his health forbids excitement and weariness. He could not be present, but was thought of with sympathy by all.

On the whole, steady improvement is noted in the prospects of the institution and the character of its work. Its influence upon Forest Grove and the surrounding country becomes more and more manifest. Nowhere will there be found a more refined and intelligent community. The work of the people and of the school seems to be thoroughly in sympathy with the perfect work of nature, whose hand has nowhere fashioned a locality more beautiful, or more fit to be the seat from which healthful influences should emanate to benefit and bless a community.

SCHOOL CHILDREN IN THE STATE.

Computation of the returns made by the school superintendents of the several counties in the State for the present year shows that the number of school children between the ages of four and twenty is as follows:

And now they will make it hot for President Hayes because he has attempted to seduce some Democrats from their allegiance, so as to secure the organization of the House of Representatives in the interest of the administration. This, they think, is a grave offence. That letter to Garfield has been dribbling out till its contents are very fully known. It is certain that Hayes entertained the idea that a number of Democratic members could be induced to join the administration party. By this time, no doubt, he is cured of the delusion. It will not be necessary for a reform administration to send any more agents under department pay to different parts of the South to sound members on this point. Nor will it be necessary for the postmaster general to write any more letters informing the Southern politicians that if they fail to come up to the support of the President he will be compelled to use "his patronage" against them. A reform administration shouldn't make such a slip as to talk about its patronage. The opposition, on the alert for matter of this kind, will make a little noise about it. The President seems to have made a slight mistake in trying to organize the House. But he backs down, and hugs the delusion no longer.

It has been said that the President is committed to the subsidy schemes of the South. The Chicago Times thinks this is a "forcing process." That paper says: The lobby desire to create a public expectation that the President will favor their scheme, the intention being, of course, to use this expectation as a part of the pressure they are organizing to drive Mr. Hayes into their ranks as a champion of it.

OFFICE OF INSURANCE COMMISSIONER,
San Francisco, Feb. 5, 1877.

I, J. W. Foard, hereby certify that I am Insurance Commissioner of the State of California, and have supervision of insurance business in the State, and as such Commissioner, further certify that the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company of California is a corporation properly organized under the laws of this State, and being in a solvent condition and possessed of a paid up capital of One Hundred Thousand Dollars, equal to Gold Coin of the United States, is authorized to do business in the State. And I further certify that, upon a personal examination of the books and papers of the said company at the close of the year eighteen hundred and seventy-six, its statement as of this date, and now on file in this office, was shown to be correct and true, the company being possessed of good, valid assets amounting to one million two hundred and sixty-four thousand eight hundred and thirty-six dollars and eighty six cents ($1,264,836 86), and having outstanding liabilities, as defined by the laws of the State, amounting to nine hundred and sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars and five cents ($916,750 05), exclusive of the Capital Stock.

[L.S.] As witness my hand and official seal, the day and year first above written.
J. W. FOARD,
Insurance Commissioner.

[Extract from Report of A. D. SMITH, ex-Deputy Insurance Commissioner.]

J. G. EDWARDS, Publisher Coast Review,

Dear Sir:—In pursuance of your request I have made an examination of the Assets and Liabilities of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company of California, as they existed on the 31st day of December, 1876, as shown by the books and papers of the Company, and as a result of such examination I beg to report as follows:

Total Assets, Gold		$1,281,847 59
Re-insurance Reserve, American Experience, 4½ per ct	$886,031 49
Claims for Death Losses	28,700 00
Due on Account Salaries and Rents	2,019 02
Total Liabilities, Gold		916,750 51
Net surplus to Policy-holders, Gold		*$365,097 08
Company's paid-up Capital	$100,000 00

The above is, I believe, a true and fair statement of the Company's condition Dec. 31, 1876.

In conclusion, I beg to say that I found the Company's business thoroughly systematized—its books and papers in excellent condition and neatly kept. Every facility was extended to me by all the officers and employees of the Company to enable me to make my examination thorough. Books, papers, and accounts were freely exhibited to me. There was no attempt to hold back or conceal anything. I am satisfied the Company courts the most rigid scrutiny. For courteous treatment, I beg to return thanks to the officers and attaches of the Company.

Respectfully submitted, A. D. SMITH.
San Francisco, February 5, 1877.

PROBABLY MURDERED.

From Messrs. Wilmer and Prang, who returned last evening from Eastern Oregon, we learn the following particulars of the sudden and unaccountable disappearance and probable murder of a man named Veachy, beyond The Dalles:

Thursday of last week Veachy arrived at the Dalles. He lived about 75 miles from that place, and arrived on horseback. After purchasing a wagon, harness and a horse, Veachy started to return home on the following day. He had on a partial load of lumber, a coop filled with fowls, and some other things. When he reached a ranch about 15 miles from his home, he stopped to get something to eat and to allow his team to rest. The person living on the ranch advised Veachy to remain all night at his place, as it was then late in the afternoon; but Veachy said he would push on and reach home that night. Soon after he hitched up his team and started. In about an hour after his departure from the ranch, a peddler, who had also stopped there to take dinner, left, going in the same direction. Some miles away from the ranch, between Cow canyon and Willow creek, the peddler saw Veachy's wagon standing some distance from the road. He also saw one horse picketed near the wagon, Veachy's cloak, or overcoat, thrown across the lumber, but saw nothing of the man. Thinking he had camped out, the peddler passed along and gave the matter no further thought. This was last Saturday afternoon. Tuesday of the present week, the peddler returned the same way, and was surprised to see the wagon and horse standing just where they were when he came along several days before. When he reached the ranch mentioned, he asked the men who Veachy was, and where he lived. On being informed, he expressed considerable surprise, and told the rancher what he had seen. This person said that surely there must be some mistake; that Veachy had certainly gone home, and that the peddler was mistaken about the wagon and team. But he was positively assured that such was the fact. To satisfy himself, the rancher accompanied the man to the place, and sure enough found the tethered animal and wagon still there. He returned, and hastily summoning several of his neighbors, instituted search. On examining the ground in the immediate vicinity, the tracks of three horses were discovered leading away from the spot. The cloak was still there, and the chickens, but one horse and the saddle and bridle which Veachy had were both missing. When our informants left, a party was engaged in scouring the country in every direction searching for traces of the missing man. Up to that time nothing had been discovered which tended to throw light on the mysterious affair. The general impression prevails that Veachy has been foully dealt with, and all the circumstances would seem to give plausibility to that supposition. Teams and the stage passed the place daily, but as there were campers scattered along the road, no particular notice was taken, and nothing strange thought of the circumstance, until public attention was called to it. In a few days something more definite will be known of the affair.

It is rumored that Rev. Thos. Guard, the eminent preacher and lecturer, now of San Francisco, formerly of Baltimore, will come to Portland soon. He is now lecturing at Marysville, Cal.

The ladies are making arrangements for the erection of a new altar railing around the pulpit stand of the M. E. church. This improvement is much needed, especially on sacramental occasions.

R. Pearsall Smith, the eminent evangelist, whose fame is world-wide, preached last Sunday morning in the Taylor-street church, in the afternoon at the meeting of the Y.M.C.A., and in the evening at the Presbyterian church.

The children who have been under instruction in Christian doctrine for several weeks will receive first communion next Sunday during 8 o'clock mass. Archbishop Blanchet will administer the sacrament of confirmation at high mass.

Saturday last the Most Reverend Archbishop Alemany, in company with Archbishop Blanchet, visited Bishop Blanchet at Vancouver, where the three venerable prelates graced St. James Cathedral on Sunday. On Wednesday morning, Archbishop Alemany proceeded to Victoria via Puget Sound, and after a brief sojourn in that city he will return direct to San Francisco by steamer. During his brief visit to this city the venerable prelate visited St. Vincent's Hospital, St. Mary's Academy and St. Michael's College, and expressed himself much pleased at the excellent institutions which he found in Portland.

A Point on which the Doctor's Agree.

Physicians who have tested Hostetter's Stomach Bitters concur in representing it to be an eminently safe stimulant, far preferable to the ordinary liquors of commerce not only because it is medicated, but because it is infinitely pure. Its alcoholic basis is the finest old rye, and this is tempered and rendered medicinal by the curative ingredients of botanic origin which it holds in solution. It has often been imitated, but never rivalled and is to day the leading tonic, diuretic and aperient of America. Malarial fevers are prevented and remedied by it, and it is a thoroughly reliable medicine in cases of dyspepsia constipation, liver complaint, rheumatism, gout nervousness, urinary and uterine affections. It improves the appetite, increases the bodily stamina, checks premature decay, and as a sustaining and comforting cordial for the aged and infirm is unequalled.

The American People.

No people in the world suffer as much with Dyspepsia as Americans. Although years of experience in medicine had failed to accomplish a certain and sure remedy for this disease and its effects, such as Sour Stomach, Heart-burn, Waterbrash, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Liver Complaint, coming up of the food, low spirits, general debility, &c., yet since the introduction of GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER we believe there is no case of Dyspepsia that cannot be immediately relieved. 30,000 dozen sold last year without one case of failure reported. Go to your Druggist and get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try it. Two doses will relieve you. Regular Size 75 cents. Agents, Crane & Brigham Wholesale Druggists, San Francisco.

WONDERFUL SUCCESS

OF

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN

In the Treatment of Chronic Disease.

Positive Proof of his Wonderful Skill.

Testimony that Cannot be Contradicted.

Reliable Witnesses Testifying What he has Done for Them.

Perfect Cures where all other Treatment had Failed.

Crowds Coming from all Parts of the Country to Visit Him.

The Following Certificates Speak for Themselves:

TO DR. PAUL M. BRENAN—

For the past year and a half I have been suffering from Nervous and General Debility, Kidney Disease, Loss of Flesh and Strength, dizziness in the head and a constant pain through the back and loins. I became so debilitated and broken down that I was unfitted for business. I have been to Victoria and all over the coast under medical treatment for the past nine months, without receiving any benefit whatever, and had almost given up hopes of ever recovering, until I came under your treatment, about seven weeks ago. From the very first your treatment seemed to work like a charm, and I constantly improved from the beginning. I have gained 14 pounds of flesh, and I am now, thanks to your skillful treatment, perfectly well, and am able to return to my business on the Snohomish. JAMES KING.
Seattle, March 31, 1877.

To the People: I have been troubled with chronic Nasal Catarrh for years, the disease being so aggravated that there was constantly an effusion of matter passing down into my throat behind the pallate and down through my nostrils.

My nose became depressed between the eyes and swollen on each side. I was told by physicians that it was a polypus; that some of the blood vessels were involved and that the removal would endanger my life by hemorrhage. I became so bad that I made up my mind that I must have immediate relief or die.

As a last resort I applied to Dr. Paul M. Brenan, who, after a moment's examination, determined what to do. He said the nasal bone was involved and diseased, and that there would have to be a portion of it removed. He at once removed the bone tumor containing the ulcer, also the diseased portion of bone and patucatory gland and cured the catarrh. I am now perfectly well and as free from disease as ever I was in my life.
THOMAS D. MURPHY.
Seattle, April 5th, 1877.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN—Dear Sir: I take great pleasure in stating for the benefit of those who are afflicted with any chronic disease, that I am now a well man. For the past two years I have been under the medical treatment of different physicians, from which I have received no benefit. I have been suffering with general and nervous debility, a difficulty in my stomach, and at times dizziness and severe headache, almost incapacitating me for work. About three weeks ago I put myself under your care, and I can say with delight that I am cured and feel like myself again, after having partaken of your skillful treatment. To me now, labor seems a pleasure. I say this much, hoping it will be the means of attracting the suffering to you who can relieve and cure them.
Yours Truly, JOHN BALLARD,
Employed at Colman's Saw Mill, Seattle.

[I will not publish any cures performed by me unless by the full consent of the parties.]
PAUL M. BRENAN.

IDEAL'S DREAM.

Three wanderers met at break of day,
 And here is what the first did say:
From scenes of life I scornful fled,
To hold communion with the dead;
'Midst ruins of a bygone age
Evoke the hero and the sage;
From Present times, debased and weak
I turn, and in the Past I seek
True greatness of the human mind,
Ideal's dream in dust to find!

 The first did end his doleful lay;
 Hear what the second had to say:
I, too, shun mortal's guilt stamped face,
And fly to Nature's pure embrace;
In tempest's roar or peaceful calm,
Her breath to me is soothing balm:
She seems the reflex but to me
Of my own being's mystery:
By Nature's loving arm entwined,
Ideal's dream at last I'll find.

 Up rose the sun from misty gray—
 Then spoke the third and turned away:
Farewell! For I my steps must wend
To yonder city, there to blend
With million lives my worthless life,
And share their sorrow, grief and strife.
To aid the weak, to raise the low,
To fight the base, my soul doth glow.
With manly heart, I hope to find
Ideal's dream among my kind.

MRS. GAINES' CASE.

THE HISTORY OF THE GREAT LAW SUIT INVOLVING PART OF THE CITY OF NEW ORLEANS—A $35,000,000 CASE.

We have already published the intelligence from New Orleans, announcing that Judge Billings, of the United States district court at that place, has rendered a decision in the case of Mrs. Myra Gaines vs. the City of New Orleans and others, in which the court sustains the claims of the plaintiff, and recognizes the probate of the will of Daniel Clark of 1813.

The decree of the court commands the defendants to account to a master in chancery for all the income from this property during their long possession. They are ousted from their titles and from all the accumulation therefrom. This decision involves also heavy claims against the city, which has sold a large amount of the property in question, with a full warranty of title. This is a phase of one of the longest and most interesting law suits in the annals of American jurisprudence. The history of the case is briefly as follows:

Mrs. Gaines is the widow of Gen. Edmund Pendleton Gaines, and was born in New Orleans in 1805. Her father, Daniel Clark, was born in the County Sligo, Ireland, 1766, and emigrating to New Orleans, inherited a considerable property from his uncle in 1799. Before the acquisition of Louisiana he was American Consul there, and represented the territory in Congress in 1806. In August, 1813 Daniel Clark died, and his property was disposed of under a will dated May 20, 1811, which gave the bulk of his estate to his mother, Mary Clark, who was then living in Germantown, Pa. He was also supposed to be a bachelor, but was known to have had a liason with a very beautiful Creole, Zulime des Granges. Two daughters were born of this connection, one at Philadelphia in April, 1802, and the other, Myra, at New Orleans, in 1805. The latter was taken to the house of Col. Davis, a friend of Clark's, nursed by a Mrs. Harner, and grew up in Philadelphia, where she was known as Myra Davis. In 1830 Mr. Davis, being then a member of the Pennsylvania Legislature, sent home for certain papers, and in searching for these Myra discovered some letters which partially revealed the secret of her birth, and laid the foundation of the lawsuit which has since become famous.

In 1832 she married W. W. Whitney, of New York, who, in following up the discovery made by his wife, secured from Col. Davis an old letter which gave an account of a will made by Clark in 1813, just before his death, giving all his large estate to Myra, and acknowledging her as his legitimate daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Whitney went immediately to Cuba, and there, after a long search, discovered the writer of the letter, and with the aid of evidence given by him, began suit in New Orleans for the property of Daniel Clark, which had in the meantime become immensely valuable, and included a great part of the present business quarter of the city. On the trial of this suit the Mrs. Harner above mentioned testified that four weeks before his death Clark showed her the will he had made in favor of Myra, and acknowledged the child's legitimacy.

Baron de Boistontaine testified that Clark had made the same statements to him. On this and other corroborative evidence the lost will was received by the Supreme Court of the State of Louisiana, on February 18, 1856, as the last will and testament of Daniel Clark, though the document itself could not be found. The objection was then interposed that, by the laws of Louisiana, a testator could not make devises to his adulterine bastard. On this point, however, two sisters of Myra's mother testified that Zuline des Granges was privately married to Clark, in their presence, in Philadelphia, in 1803, by a Catholic priest, it having been learned that Zulime's reputed husband, Des Granges, had another wife living, and was therefore not legally married. In another suit, growing out of this difficulty, the United States Supreme Court decided that the marriage and legitimacy of Myra were established.

In the meanwhile Mr. Whitney died, and his widow married Gen. Gaines, whom she has also outlived. Assisted by the general, Mrs. Gaines continued her litigation, and in 1856, in the Supreme Court of the United States, filed a bill in equity to recover valuable real estate then in the possession of the city of New Orleans and a decision in her favor was rendered in 1867. The value of the property claimed was estimated in 1861, at $35,000,000, of which Mrs. Gaines had up to 1874, obtained possession of some $6,500,000. Numerous actions of ejectment against individual parties have followed, and it is no doubt one of these that Judge Billings has now decided in Mrs. Gaines' favor.

The heroine of this romantic story is a little black eyed lady of over seventy, who still retains traces of former uncommon beauty. She is well educated, quick and courageous. Her long and varied experience in the law courts has given her a legal education of no mean character. On several occasions, and notably in the Supreme Court of the United States in 1861, she has pleaded her own cause personally and with remarkable success. Though at the time of General Gaines' death a wealthy woman, she has often been in financial straits, for she has spent several large fortunes in prosecuting her claims. The property now known as the Hannas Plantations and belonging to Mr. John Burnside, of New Orleans, was at one time part of the Gaines estate, and was sold with the slaves on it to General Wade Hampton, of South Carolina, in 1812, for $500,000. When Mrs. Gaines succeeds in getting possession of all the property awarded her, she will be the wealthiest person in New Orleans, and perhaps the richest woman in the world.

LITERARY PREDICTIONS.

A writer in the seventeenth century—Wm. Winstanley—in his "Lives of the English Poets," thus speaks and prophesies of Milton: "John Milton was one whose natural parts might deservedly give him a place among the principal of our English poets, having written two heroic poems and a tragedy. But his fame has gone out like a candle in a snuff, and his memory will always stink."

One of the most illustrious of Milton's brother bards, Edmund Waller, in one of his letters, refers to "Paradise Lost" as a tedious poem by the blind schoolmaster, in which there is nothing remarkable but the length. Horace Walpole, as shrewd a man and as accomplished a critic as ever lived, has obligingly informed us who were the "first writers" in 1753. Posterity would probably guess with Macauley that they were Hume, Fielding, Smollett, Richardson, Johnson, Warburton, Collins, Akenside, Gray. Not at all. They were, according to a cotemporary, Lord Chesterfield, Lord Bath, Mr. William Whitehead, Sir Charles Williams, Mr. Soame Jenynge, Mr. Cambridge and Mr. Coventry—that is to say, a pack of scribblers, only one of whom is known even by name to ninety-nine readers out of a hundred—Lord Chesterfield, and he is remembered chiefly as the ninepin of Dr. Johnson and Cowper. Geo. Steevens has remarked that nothing short of an act of Parliament would induce people to read the sonnett of Shakespeare, and Johnson prophesied a safe immortality for Pomphret's famous "Choice." Every one knows how the great Edinborough received Byron's first attempts, and what it "prophesighed" concerning him. When Dickens brought out "Pickwick," a leading review, on desccending to notice the "low cockney tale," shrewdly perceived that the author was already proving himself unequal, and that the "thin vein of humor" was rapidly showing signs of exhaustion. In the author of "Œnone," "Locksley Hall," and the "Lotos Eaters," the keen and searching critical acumen of the Quarterly could only see a minor star of the "galaxy or milky way of poetry of which the lamented Keats was the harbinger," and the future author of the "Idylls" and "In Memoriam" was received with peals of laughter and consigned placidly to oblivion.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Financial.

THURSDAY EVENING, June 7, 1877.

Gold in New York, 105¾.

Legal Tenders in Portland—buying 94; selling, 95.

Silver Coin—4½@5 per cent. discount.

The movement of affairs in local monetary circles is in the ordinary channels, and without any special demand than that arising from sources before mentioned; rates at the banks, and with outside parties continue very steady. Notwithstanding the inquiry from those engaged in the fisheries and for moving the wool clip, the supply of loanable funds is reported to be quite as large as before, and any good opportunities for investment do not have to wait. Borrowers who are able to show the required security find all needed accommodation very readily at 10@12 per cent per annum. The assurance that the surplus grain yield at the approaching harvest will be unusually large, causes a somewhat conservative feeling to prevail in some quarters, and the disposition to husband funds for the purpose of moving that surplus is plainly observable, but so far it has not perceptibly affected the market. The drift of specie toward San Francisco and the East in settlement of bills for spring stocks is quite heavy, and but for the fact of the heavy export of home products during the season, the balance sheet of the year's business would be very largely against our State. The imports the past spring, though very heavy, have not however so largely exceeded those of former years, as some have supposed.

Stocks of all imported goods, domestic and foreign, are quite full at this time, and merchants in this city are doing their full share of business.

Domestic Produce.

In this department of trade we notice a moderate degree of activity in nearly all lines except wheat which is only coming in in small lots, and but few parties seem anxious to handle it even at current rates. Oats are some lower, but the receipts having been light for several days the home demand may at any time produce an advance of 2@3 cents per bushel. Flour is in fair supply and rates firmly sustained with an active local trade and some demand from shippers. The last steamers for San Francisco took 4,000 bbls and the next will also have a considerable quantity. The leading brands of Oregon flour find a great deal of favor with San Francisco bakers and they consume a very large proportion of our shipments thither. Provisions are very quiet and with some decline in the demand for export, the stock in hands of dealers show an accumulation. Prices, however, as will be seen by our quotations, are changed in no important particular. Hay has come forward very freely recently and a great deal of it loose, is placed with difficulty at anything over $10 per ton, while choice baled timothy sells slowly at our maximum quotations. The coming crop, which will very soon be in market, is reported to be very abundant. Dairy products are plentiful and trade for some days past has somewhat improved. The prices given are for fair merchantable lots of the qualities named. Eggs are in better demand to-day, as the receipts have shown a falling off in volume. A rush of them, however, would soon break the market to 15@16 cents per dozen again. The wool market shows a marked increase in the volume of transactions, and the bulk of the clip will be coming forward within the next ten days. The number of buyers in San Francisco has decreased, as some of them have gone East to attend other markets. In local circles there is but little speculative feeling, and the bulk of transactions are on commission. The last San Francisco bound steamer carried about 125,000 lbs, and a much larger amount is awaiting shipment by the next. Hides, peltry, etc., are active at quotations.

Groceries.

Wholesale and jobbers' prices for staple groceries are as follows: Coffee, 20@21½c ℔ lb; sugars crushed in bbls., 15c ℔ lb., granulated 14½, Island No. 1 11@11½, medium 10@10½, No. 2 8@9; salt, bag $12 per ton, ground rock $14, Liverpool coarse $18, do fine $22 50@25; syrups in kegs 82½c ℔ gal, in bbls, 75c; teas, Japan in papers 30@45c ℔ lb; Corbitt & Macleay's registered brands, extra choicest 45@47½c, extra fine 35@37½c, Oregon seal 55c, rice, China No. 1 6@6½c, No. 2 5¾@6c, Sandwich Islands 6c, Japan 5½c.

New York Freights and Markets.

NEW YORK, June 6.—The continuation of yesterday's storm prevented any particular movement of freight for Pacific coast vessels, and the market is very quiet. Freights at Philadelphia and Boston are reported very quiet.

Merchandise markets are still quiet, flour less depressed, but no activity, shippers making inquiry, but at prices 10@15 cents below prices asked; wheat better; export demand for fair to good spring and market closed firm. Pork, good export demand, easier, carcasses closing $14 20@14 25. Refined sugars, better demand, firmer; teas quiet and a little firmer. Hides unchanged. Wool continues quiet; California spring, very limited demand, but supply is light, holders however firm and confident of the future; fall wools, no demand at low prices, sales of 125 bales spring, 23c; 25 bales fall, 20c. Dry goods dull; California jobbers have been operating moderately in cottoton goods, hosiery, etc.

THE UNDERSIGNED DESIRES INFORMATION concerning his brother, DENNIS WHITE. He was born in the town of Kilmacanogue, county of Wicklow, Ireland, and emigrated to the United States in 1858. He lived in Oswego county, N. Y., and worked with me for a man named F. H. Berry, a tanner; afterwards we went to Oneida county and worked for P. & P. Costello. I last saw Dennis White about three years ago as he was about starting for Ireland; since that time I have heard nothing from him. I came to Portland, Oregon, in September, 1875, where I still reside. Business of importance requires that I should know if my brother, Dennis White, is still alive. Any information can be addressed to me, care of Parrish & Cornell, Portland, Oregon. ("Irish World," N. Y. please copy.) [je4d4t] WILLIAM WHITE.

PRATT'S MINERAL COLZA OIL.

300° FIRE TEST.

Chas. Pratt & Co., New York,

Sole Proprietors and Manufacturers.

To Consumers of High Fire-Test Mineral Oils.

YOUR ATTENTION IS PARTICULARLY INVITED to our 300° Fire-Test Oil, called "Pratt's Mineral Colza," which we are now manufacturing expressly for STEAMSHIP, RAILROAD and MILL ILLUMINATION, or for use where an exceedingly high Fire-Test Oil is required. It has already been adopted by many of the Railroads throughout the country, and by most of the coastwise steamers sailing from New York, whose continuance of its use in preference to all similar Oils, is sufficient commendation as to its quality. It will not burn well in the ordinary Petroleum Lamp, it being of too heavy gravity for such use; but in the German Student Lamp and those with double wick burners, we guarantee it to give perfect satisfaction producing a pure flame of great brilliancy. Our facilities for manufacturing are excellent, and equal to any demand, while the price is much lower than that of any oil in the market of the same character and fire test. The U. S. law in regard to the use of these O. is on passenger steamers is very explicit, as follows:

"Any Oil which will stand a Fire Test of Three Hundred (300°) Degrees Fahrenheit, may be carried as freight or used as stores on any steamer carrying passengers."

We beg to offer the following Certificates, which have been handed us from the very best authorities obtainable, in regard to the test of the Mineral Colza Oil, and they may be considered perfectly reliable:

Report of Prof. S. Dana Hayes, Massachusetts State Assayer.

[COPY.] BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 19th, 1876.

A sample of burning Oil, marked Mineral Colza, manufactured by CHARLES PRATT & Co., of New York City, has been tested by me with the following result: It has a Fire Test of 328° Fahrenheit. It does not ignite under 328° F.
(Signed) S. DANA HAYES,
Massachusetts State Assayer.

Report of Inspector of Petroleum Oil, for State of Massachusetts.

[COPY.] BOSTON, October 4th 1876.

I have tested samples of Mineral Colza Oil, from CHARLES PRATT & Co., New York City, and find the igniting point or Fire Test to be 315° Fahrenheit. (Signed) R. F. MEANS, Mass. State Inspector of Petroleum.

Report on Sample of Mineral Colza Oil, Tested for U. S. Inspector of Steamers 2d District.

[COPY.] NEW YORK, April 25th, 1876.

Mr. ADDISON LOW, U. S. Sub. Inspector.

DEAR SIR: We have tested the sample of Mineral Colza Oil presented by you, and find it stands a Fire Test of 300° Fahrenheit, and we consider it in all respects a very superior Oil.
(Signed) LOCKWOOD, BROS. & HOLLY,
Petroleum Inspectors appointed by N. Y. City Produce Exchange.

To the Trade.

The undersigned beg to call your attention to all of the above, and thus advise you that they will at all times have a full supply of the above mentioned goods on hand, and would be pleased to have your orders.

GENERAL NEWS

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN

Peter Cooper on Finances.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Peter Cooper [illegible] addressed an open letter to Presiden[illegible] criticising the past financial policy o[illegible] ereign government, and also marking [illegible] proper course in his opinion to be pu[illegible] the future. He begins the letter wi[illegible] words: "Allow me to offer you my [illegible] thanks for the wise and independen[illegible] you have adopted in the discharge of [illegible] sponsible and difficult duties that y[illegible] been called upon to perform." Coope[illegible] that our national currency must be [illegible] ceivable for all purposes throughout [illegible] try and interconvertible with 3 per c[illegible] ernment bonds. Such a currency wou[illegible] been worth more to the American peo[illegible] all the gold mines that have ever bee[illegible] ered on the continent. He advises [illegible] be withdrawn from circulation and [illegible] the purchase of foreign bonds, the [illegible] paper currency to be revived.

Financial Subjects.

The Tribune's Washington special [illegible] retary Sherman said to-day: I am [illegible] carrying out the act of Congress, an[illegible] Congress interferes by repealing or ex[illegible] the time fixed by the act for resum[illegible] specie payments, I shall proceed to [illegible] the law as I find it in the statute book[illegible] Politicians who recently arrived fro[illegible] ans report the feeling in favor of [illegible] itizing of silver very strong in both [illegible] and that it has apparently wiped ou[illegible] structive greenback faction. These [illegible] men declare if the President recomm[illegible] monetizing of silver in his message [illegible] gress, his administration will be th[illegible] popular which the country has had i[illegible] years.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—A gentlem[illegible] poses a compromise upon which he [illegible] unite the silver dollar men and advo[illegible] the gold standard. He has patented [illegible] for coinage supposed to contain two s[illegible] in one. It consists of amalgam of [illegible] four parts of silver to one of gold, [illegible] about the same as the alloy of copper [illegible] used in silver coins. A dollar piece [illegible] material will be about the size of our [illegible] silver half-dollars. The inventor [illegible] that coins made of his patent mixt[illegible] legal tender and recent subsidiary [illegible] shall be retired. He argues that [illegible] money will not be exported nor worke[illegible] jewelers and silversmiths, and that [illegible] therefore remain in the country as a [illegible] nent circulating medium. He says th[illegible] of the new metal would be greater tha[illegible] of its component parts, and that it w[illegible] liable to less wear than either gold or [illegible]

Richard B. Connolly of Tammany [illegible] opened negotiations looking to the res[illegible] of part of the plunder now held in th[illegible] of his son-in-law. Lerdo de Tejada, now in New York [illegible] to the World in relation to the recen[illegible] for American troops to cross the M[illegible] border in certain contingencies, saying [illegible] be hoped no such case as the order [illegible] plates may arise, nor any cause of a [illegible] derstanding between the two countr[illegible] unfortunately this hope should not [illegible] fied Mexico could not consent to allow [illegible] can troops to enter her territory witho[illegible] mitting to a violation of her rights a[illegible] ereign and independant nation, I m[illegible] therefore, not only in my name but in [illegible] all supporters of constitutional gover[illegible] that neither for the purpose of stoppin[illegible] for any other purpose can we fail to ful[illegible] duty in presence of any peril to autono[illegible] rights of Mexico. The constitutional [illegible] ment will seek no help save from the [illegible] and action of Mexican people, holding [illegible] above all things the honor, integrity [illegible] dependence of the country.

Brigham Young's Views.

The Sun's Cheyenne special says B[illegible] Young has written to Washington [illegible] there is no need for troops in Utah; [illegible] the financial benefit of Salt Lake b[illegible] like to see a regiment there if the gover[illegible] has no better place to quarter one.
